What I Would Like You To Know <ul style="list-style-type: none">- I like to play tennis and sing.- I have a younger brother and sister and I help take care of them while my mom works.- I have a dog and three cats- I want to own my own nursery and landscaping business- My favorite subjects are PE, Ag Ed and choir- Reading is hard for me, but I am getting better	How I Learn Best <ul style="list-style-type: none">- I am not a good reader, so I need to hear the lecture from the teacher and talk with others about the assignment- I am a very strong oral learner- I also learn well from hands-on learning- I cannot listen to a lecture or discussion and write good notes at the same time—my brain doesn't work that way. It doesn't mean I am being lazy.
Modifications/Accommodations <ul style="list-style-type: none">- I need a copy of your PowerPoint or lecture notes ahead of time so I can refer to them or jot down notes as you are talking.- I need to have text books in audio form. My reading comprehension goes way up when I am listening to the text rather than visually reading it.- I need to have tests read to me.	What I Need From You <ul style="list-style-type: none">- I need you to understand that I have a learning disability in reading. This does not mean I am dumb—it means that my brain learns differently. I am smart and I have good ideas—I just need to have the text in audio form to go along with the visual form.- I need you to ask me if you have questions about me or what I need to learn well. Please don't assume I am being lazy or can't do something. I want to learn!
